RE: 2024-25 Grand Jury Report

On behalf of the Lake County Library, I thank the Grand Jury for their recent report and for recognizing key services and individuals within our library system. These acknowledgments underscore the library's commitment to promoting reading, literacy, and lifelong learning across Lake County.

Georgina Marie Guardado, serving as Lake County's Poet Laureate and as the coordinator for our Adult Literacy program, has indeed made a significant and positive impact on community engagement and literacy skills. Her dedication, along with the work of our literacy volunteers, is crucial in addressing the diverse literacy needs of our residents.

Similarly, we are incredibly grateful for the Grand Jury's recognition of our Bookmobile service. Brandon Mach, our Bookmobile driver, along with all the staff who support its operations, ensure that library resources reach some of our most remote and underserved areas. The bookmobile has enhanced our outreach efforts, providing access to materials and resources that might otherwise be unavailable to many in our county.

Thank you again for spotlighting these important aspects of our service to Lake County.
